COMMUNIQUE

Following consultations with various stakeholders the Board of Administrators of the Mauritius Turf Club have decided to discontinue the court case between the Mauritius Turf Club (MTC) and the Gambling Regulatory Authority (GRA) relating to the organisation and control of horseracing.

The GRA has been advised accordingly and due legal process will be followed to give effect to this decision as soon as possible.

The MTC trusts that this decision will facilitate collaboration between all of horseracing's stakeholders and as such be in the long-term interests of horseracing in Mauritius.
